OUR WASHINGTON NEWS.

THE PRESIDENT NOT TO TAKE AN EXTENDED TRIP.

He Will Only go to St. Louis in the Fall, Making Several Stops on the Way—Agent of the French Government Inspecting Our Machinery—Other National Notes.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—It is not true, as reported, that President Cleveland contemplates an extended tour through the west in the course of which he will consent to be the principal attraction at sundry county fairs and other bucolic diversions. It is probable that the president will spend a fortnight in the summer hunting in the Adirondacks.

In September he will attend the Grand Army celebration in St. Louis, stopping a few hours en route at Cincinnati, and possibly at Louisville. He will leave St. Louis for Omaha, where he may spend half a day. It is not improbable that another day may be spent in Chicago. If his brief vacation will permit, the president will likely extend his trip to Madison, Wis., the home of Postmaster General Vilas. On the return trip he may stop over a few hours at several places between Chicago and Washington.

SENATORIAL ELECTIONS NOT COMPLETE.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—It appears that the senatorial elections are not yet complete. There is a squabble in West Virginia over the election of Senator Camden's successor. The governor, it is understood, will refuse a certificate of election to Charles J. Faulkner who was recently chosen senator by a special session of the legislature. Mr. Lucas, who was appointed by the governor to fill the vacancy, contends that the election of Mr. Faulkner is void, being contrary to the constitution of the state. It is also understood that determined opposition will be made to the seating of the new Democratic senator from Indiana, on the ground of irregular proceedings and that opposition to Chandler. Mr. Gould, Democrat, was the only absentee.

There having been a majority for Mr. Chandler in the senate as well as in the house, he is elected for the unexpired term.

Inspecting Machinery.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Victor Delahaye, of Paris, is in Washington inspecting machinery models in the patent office, and says he was sent here by the French government. The machinists in his country conceived the idea of organizing an immense co-operative machine factory and have asked the French government for a loan of 6,000,000 francs to aid them in the undertaking. "If what the syndicate wants in the way of machinery is found here," Mr. Delahaye says, "part of the money will go to American inventors."

ONLY SIXTEEN INDIANS ON THE WAR PATH.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Gen. Howard has informed the war department that only sixteen Apache warriors have left the San Carlos agency, and that the others are not sympathetic with them.

Naval Academy Affairs.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The naval academy visitors have recommended that thirteen inefficient cadets be dropped and four re-examined.

Vermont's Attorney.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The president has appointed Clarence H. Pitkin, of Vermont, to be United States attorney for Vermont.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT SELF-DESTRUCTION IN THE CINCINNATI WORKHOUSE.

CINCINNATI, June 15.—Robert Weldy, aged twenty-one, residing at Dayton, Ky., was arrested by Officer Burleson on May 16 last after a desperate struggle, in which the officer's hand was badly cut. Next morning he pleaded guilty in the police court to the charge of drunkenness and was sent to the workhouse for thirty days and $50. His term would expire August 13. This was the tenth time he had been sent out. Twice before he cut persons with whom he had trouble, and was recognized by the police as one of the most dangerous men in the West End, being a pal of Joe Dutch. Since his incarceration this time he has been employed in the sewing machine shop.

Wheat declined for June from ninety-two cents to seventy-five cents, a decline of seventeen cents per bushel.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Judge Gary yesterday gave judgment for five cents in favor of the three St. Felix sisters and against Mrs. Sophia W. Knight, wife of George S. Knight, the comedian. The sisters were employed in their dramatic capacity in "Over the Garden Wall." Their contract required them to dress well on and off the stage, and conduct themselves like ladies. The agreement was for thirty weeks at $140 a week for the three. After being paid for twenty-seven weeks Mrs. Knight discharged them, and they sued to recover for three weeks' salary. Judge Gary said the evidence all showed that the girls did not behave like ladies as their contract required. The sisters were allowed five cents damages to save costs. They appealed.

The beer trade in Lexington is estimated to be worth $40,000 a year, and the Frankfort and Cincinnati brewers are fighting over it.

The record in the pension business made by the present Democratic administration ought to satisfy the most loyal G. A. R. post in the country.

FIFTY thousand new names have been added to the pension list the past year, and this is a Democratic administration too. No Republican administration has ever done better by the soldiers, with probably one exception.

PREPARATIONS are being made at Washington to consolidate twenty-two collection districts, which will cut off one hundred and seventy-six salaried officers, and save the people about $100,000 a year. This is retrenchment and reform of the right sort.

THERE are thirty-eight States in the confederation which calls itself the United States of America. Twenty-three of these have Democratic Governors and fifteen have Republican Governors. Will some one be kind enough to size up the meaning of that?—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The people rule. Democracy is the party of the people. Democracy rules, and will continue to rule.

Seek Fortune's Embrace Ere it is too Late.

The 20th grand monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery took place at New Orleans, on Tuesday (always Tuesday), May 10th, 1887. $52,500 was sent to many worthy people. We will tell some: No. 15,766 drew the first prize; it was sold in fractional tenths at $1 each, sent to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. One was sent to T. J. Lynch, a well known liquor dealer, S. E. cor. 11th and Locust Sts., Phila.; it was collected by the Third National Bank of Phila.; six tenths were sold to Californians, and were collected through Wells, Fargo & Co., of San Francisco, Cal.; one sold to A. Fruny, Deer Lick, Mason Co., W. Va. was collected through Metropolitan National Bank, Cincinnati, Ohio. No. 75,866 drew the second prize of $50,000; it also was sold in tenths for $1; two were paid through the Nat'l Commercial Bank of Mobile, Ala.; one through the Commercial Nat'l Bank of Nashville, Tenn.; one paid through Bank of Commerce, Louisville, Ky., two to Frank Corcoran, Cairo, Ill., through the City Nat'l Bank of Cairo, Ill. No. 15,872 drew the third prize of $20,000—it was also sold in tenths; one to Edwin Le Bars, of New York city, collected through Adams Express Co.; one to N. Crenshaw, of Everett, Kas.; one to C. J. Harman, paid through Corry National Bank of Corry, Pa.; one paid through Bank of California at San Francisco, Cal.; one paid to Nevada Bank of San Francisco, and the rest elsewhere. Nos. 45,649 and 51,955 drew the two fourth prizes of 10,000 each; sold to parties in Chicago, Ill.; San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose, Cal.; Keokuk, Iowa; Camile, Mo.; New Orleans, Boston, Washington, Pittsburg, Mt. Pleasant, Fla.; Gurdon, Ark.; Union Star, Mo.; and elsewhere. So the wheel turns on forever, and on July 12th it will be repeated. Any one can learn full particulars by addressing M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. Seek Fortune's embrace ere it is too late.

Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co. Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., says: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklin's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by J. C. Pecor & Co.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Suit, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only half a dollar a bottle at J. C. Pecor & Co.'s, and S. P. Campbell & Co.'s, Aberdeen, O.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles of this great discovery for consumption free at J. C. Pecor & Co.'s and S. P. Campbell & Co.'s, Aberdeen, O.

SNEAKING AND CLEVER.

A BROOKLYN DETECTIVE TELLS HOW THIEVES OPERATE.

Ingenious Methods of Sneak Thieves in the City—Swindling Customs of Express Companies—The Room Hunter. Conscienceless Scoundrels—Poverty.

"I suppose that Brooklyn has some of the cleverest sneak thieves in the country," said a detective attached to one of the uptown stations, when he was asked about this form of crime." "The ingenuity and labor which some of them devote to their dishonest efforts would, if applied to respectable industry, make them rich. They are constantly devising something new or giving an old trick a new and unexpected application. A man has to be on the alert to keep up with these people. One day last week a lady who lives near here came in and complained that she had been robbed by a census taker. He had come in and taken down the names of all the members of the family. A moment after leaving he had returned and politely begged her to see if he had not left his notebook in the room. While she had gone to look he had coolly 'pinched' a gold headed cane and a beaver overcoat from the hat rack and marched off with it.

"Did you notice the arrest of two men in New York the other day for swindling the customers of express companies, by calling with the cards that are hung on store fronts and taking away the packages which are intended to be shipped? Some people thought that was a new kind of audacious robbery. But it isn't. There are three men in the Kings County penitentiary for playing just that same game in Brooklyn years ago. It is a stupid trick, because the victims quickly discover they have been robbed, and the express companies take hold of the matter and make short work of the thieves. Another variety of the same game is to call around with boxes purporting to have come by express and collect charges on them. It used to be very common during the holiday season, but we have broken it up of late years. Sometimes the thieves deliver what purport to be packages of expensive dry goods from well known firms on which small charges remain to be paid. Sometimes they delude some avaricious woman into thinking she can profit by the apparent mistake. Of course the package is found to be filled with hay or rags when it is examined.

AN OLD METHOD.

"A once familiar method of wholesale robbery here and in New York was to visit a house that had been closed by its occupants during the summer months, and making an entrance within, boldly proceed to carry off all the contents in broad daylight on a truck. It is not often heard of lately, because it takes a great deal of nerve and the chances of detection are very great. I understand that thieves in western cities have just learned the trick, and are making things very unpleasant for families that go out of town for the summer.

"A very common guise for the sneak thief to assume is that of the room hunter. He scans the newspapers for advertisements of rooms to rent in available quarters. Then he calls and inspects the premises. Every time the lady's back is turned he picks up something of value. Sometimes he drops his glove or his handkerchief and then goes back to look for it and gathers in whatever he can. Or if he sees a good overcoat in the hall he will send the lady back for the handkerchief while he disappears with the coat. It takes a well dressed and plausible tongued thief to do that trick.

"The telephone in the hands of an expert thief often becomes another innocent means for robbing unsuspecting people. You know in the drug and grocery stores in the outlying districts the telephone is usually placed by the proprietor's desk, where it will be nice and handy. The stranger who requests to use it asks for it so politely that it would be the height of discourtesy to refuse it. But look out for him when he comes in when you are all alone in the store. While he is having a hand to hand struggle with the intelligent artist at the central office, and you are waiting on a customer in the front of the store, he is quietly filling his pockets with whatever he can see about him.

THE MEANER CLASS.

"But as I was saying, these men that I have described are the aristocrats of the sneak thieves' profession. After them comes the ho pojoi. The scale runs down through the men who call to get furniture and silverware to repair and the men who take away umbrellas to fix up and never return them, the men who steal up the front steps and try the front door while the family is at supper, down to the man who has a stick with a hook in it and reaches over back yard fences and lifts clothes from the line. He is about the meanest, because he makes the most trouble for poor washer women, who cannot afford to replace the costly raiment of their patrons which he has stolen. He has cast doubts on the honesty of many a poor woman who wouldn't steal an old handkerchief to keep herself from starving.

"Somewhere near the bottom of the list I should put the conscienceless scoundrels who used to go around and beg money for alleged charitable institutions, but we have broken up their business of late years and that is worn out. The men who used to do that I suppose are now stealing the papers from blind newsmen and women. They are mean enough to do anything.

"But with all their ingenuity and smartness they can't make enough money to keep out of poverty's grip. There isn't one of the clever thieves that couldn't tell you that there is no money in being dishonest. Sooner or later we are bound to get our clutches on them and then all their smartness in scaring women and robbing children seems very mean and pitiful when it is brought out in court and lands them in the penitentiary for three or four years."—Brooklyn Eagle.

FATHER OF CHEAP POSTAGE.

The Enterprise of Lysander Spooner, the Rowland Hill of America.

There died in Boston the other day a man to whom belongs more justly than to any one else the honorable title of the father of cheap postage in America. This was the veteran Lysander Spooner, who passed away at his home at the age of 70. In 1844, when the sending of an ordinary letter any distance was a serious tax, Mr. Spooner began an enterprise which was almost immediate and proved lasting in its results. He believed, while denying the right of leagues to monopolize the carrying of mails, that the business could be done more cheaply at a profit.

To prove his belief and test the power of leagues he established a private mail from Boston to New York, afterward extending it to Philadelphia and Baltimore, carrying letters at the uniform rate of five cents. The business grew rapidly, but the government officials soon overwhelmed him with prosecutions. Every letter he carried could be made the basis of a suit. He tried to get the attorneys of the department to let the question go to the last tribunal on one test case, waiving proceedings on the others for the time being, but this did not suit their purpose, which was to crush him with the weight of legal expenses, and thus sooner drive him from the field. This they succeeded in doing in the course of seven or eight months. He had not the means to defend the numerous cases piled up against him, and was compelled to surrender. Others, following his example, had established private mails, and they, too, were forced to retire.

But the moral victory was his. He had demonstrated that a low rate of postage would support the department, something of which the people but for his action at that time might not have been convinced for many years afterward. So well had he done his work that in the next year congress made the first reduction in postage rates, followed in 1851 and in subsequent years with still further reductions. Mr. Spooner was also a voluminous writer and an active abolitionist, and the publication of his work demonstrating the unconstitutionality of slavery marked an epoch in the anti-slavery agitation.—New York Times.

At a New York Table d'Hôte.

There are about forty persons present at 6:30 o'clock, and diners drop in and out until after 8. At the further end of the room are a couple of family parties, the ladies without their bonnets and with their children. These are evidently residents or lodgers at the hotel. Four other tables are occupied by young fellows who think it a great thing to dine at the Brunswick, are impressed by the elegant surroundings and overawed by the portly French waiters. You notice at several tables the same sort of couples—an elderly gentleman and a very young lady. These are fathers, or uncles, or guardians, perhaps, who know too much of the world to waste an expensive dinner upon a lady and yet like to take their wards to a first rate place. The rest of the company are easily assorted into parties who are going to the theatre and parties who have arrived from the races.

Before the first dishes are served a boy passes around the room and offers a basket of boutonnieres to every diner. There are sweet pinks for the gentlemen and white rosebuds for the ladies. To those who hesitate to help themselves the head waiter politely explains that there is nothing to pay; the flowers are a little compliment to the guests. This head waiter is a character. He is supposed to know everybody. As he hands you the bill of fare you ask him:

"Is there anybody here to-day, Gustav?"

He is a picture as he looks shrewdly from table to table, sighs gently, as if the whole company had been weighed in the balance and found wanting, and solemnly replies:

"Nobody, sir."

He means nobody worth mentioning—nobody whom he ought to know—and equally, of course, his diplomatic smile and glance assure you that you are excepted from this sweeping condemnation.—Stephen Fiske in New York World.

The Coffee Market Failure.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The liabilities of R. G. Arnold & Co., the big coffee firm which failed yesterday, is estimated at from $250,000 to $1,000,000. They will pull through. The coffee exchange has closed for three days and are waiting to hear from Rio and Havre, the latter place having started the break. It is probable the market will be built up again by reducing the shipment from South America.

Stables Burned.

ST. LOUIS, June 15.—The Lafayette Brewing company's stables burned at 1 a.m. Several horses were burned. Loss $15,000. Ten minutes later another fire gutted the Mound City Street Car company's stables, corner of Glasgow and Jefferson avenues. The stables were completely destroyed. Over three hundred mules and other property were destroyed.

Child Burned to Death.

WINCHESTER, O., June 15.—Near Rarden, twenty miles east of here, late last evening the eight-year-old child of Stewart Rollins attempted to start a fire with coal oil. The oil in the can ignited, the child's clothes took fire, and in a moment she was enveloped in flames. Her clothes were burned off and her lower limbs were burned almost to a crisp. She died this morning.

Fatal Fall From a Window.

LOUISVILLE, June 15.—At an early hour yesterday morning Mr. A. Glazebrook was awakened by a noise in the bedroom of his wife, which adjoined his own, in their residence on Von Borries avenue, this city. Upon entering he found the room unoccupied and going to the window, which was open, he saw a prostrated form on the ground below. Investigation proved this to be his wife, who expired shortly after being carried into the house. It is thought she walked out of the window in her sleep, or it may be she lost her balance while opening the window.

He Upset the House.

CHICAGO, June 15.—Mike Calahan went to make a call at a house in what is known as "Rotten Row." The house was undergoing some repairs, and was jacked up several feet. During the evening Mike was thrown out, and for revenge he proceeded to jack up one corner so high that the house upset. The whole building went bodily over on its roof, the chimney sticking in the mud, while the terrified occupants came clambering out through the cellar door, which was then where the roof batch ought to be.

Found Guilty of Murder.

MR. HOLLY, N. J., June 15.—Barclay Peak has been found guilty of the murder of his cousin, Katie Anderson, who was found in the road with a bullet in her brain one morning after having been in Peak's company the evening before, when a quarrel had taken place. During intervals of semi-consciousness before death ensued, the girl said repeatedly that Peak shot her. The defense relied mainly upon the fact that the girl had threatened to kill herself. Sentence was deferred.

Still Lacks One Man.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The day in the Sharp bribery trial was consumed in the attempt to get a jury. Only one man was accepted and when court adjourned one seat was still vacant. Mr. Sharp was not taken to the tomb as was anticipated, but was allowed to go home. It is now pretty generally believed that Moloney will not testify in the Sharp trial.

Death of Isaac Boughner.

The remains of Isaac Boughner were brought here from Cincinnati last evening by the steamer Bonanza, and will be buried from the McLanahan residence on West Third street. Mr. Boughner was stricken with paralysis some weeks ago, the stroke resulting in his death Monday night at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati.

He was fifty-two years old, and has been connected with the river interests since his eighteenth year. In early life he was pilot of the steamer Kenton and other boats in the Maysville and Cincinnati trade. Afterwards he was employed by Captain McClain on the first Boston, plying between Cincinnati and Portsmouth, in which trade he remained up to the time of his last illness, in all thirty-four years. He was at his post of duty on the Bonanza when stricken down a few weeks ago, and had just landed the steamer at the Cincinnati wharf. His career on the river was rather an eventful one. He was on the ill-fated Boston that burned opposite this city, August 8, 1866. He was at the wheel when the alarm of fire was given, but retained his coolness and courage, and ran the burning boat on the Aberdeen Bar. He then escaped forward from the pilot house, not saving anything except the clothing he was wearing. He then succeeded in saving Mrs. Spilman, wife of the pastor of the Presbyterian Church, this city, from the flames, although she died in a few days from her injuries.

His wife, who was a Miss McLanahan, of this city, survives him. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. R. B. Garrett officiating.

A CRITICAL SITUATION.

THE THREATENING STATE OF AFFAIRS IN AFGHANISTAN.

The Fate of the Amir Depending on the Battle Which Will Begin on June 22. The London Free Areased—Parnell and the Pope—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, June 16.—The fate of the amir of Afghanistan is now wholly dependent upon the success of his forces in their coming battle with the Ghilzais, confronting them, which will be precipitated immediately after the expiration of the Mohammedan feast of the Ramadan, devoutly observed by the Indians and Afghans, and which will expire on June 23.

The Tarakhi clan, one of the most powerful aggregations of small Afghan tribes loyal to the amir, had collected in the Nava Valley, awaiting the termination of the Ramadan, when they would join the amir's army and assist them, but the Ghilzais have cut off all communication between the Nava Valley and the main army of the amir by seizing the only two passes affording means of communication, and Shere Jan, the commander of the Tarakhi, is likely to have as much as he can do to get out of his self-made trap in any direction and leave the amir to take care of himself.

The amir's popularity has disappeared, and if he does not succeed in quelling the rebellion against his authority at his next battle with the insurgents he must fall. His defeat or death at this time would be of enormous advantage to the British, since it would furnish a pretext for British occupation of the whole of Afghanistan and the preparations of the Indian government for availing itself of the benefit arising from either contingency are already complete. The work of fortifying certain important positions along the route to Candahar is complete, and the railways through Khaikot and Gwaijai passes are in condition to be roadbed and equipment to transport 100,000 troops upon the shortest notice.

Russia's intrigues with the governor of Badakshan have resulted in the purchase by Russian agents of the entire grain crop of that province, and the announcement of the transaction has aroused the London press to a tirade against Russian movements and Russian methods on the frontier, and an urgent appeal to the government to demand of the government at St. Petersburg the immediate withdrawal of its soldiers within the boundaries of its own territory. The occupation of Kerkis is denounced as a warlike menace, and the appointment of the pretender, Iskander Khan, as governor of Peshawar, the making of that place a Russian advance post and the establishment of a hostile garrison opposite the amir's position on the Oxus river at Khoja Saloh, are characterized as acts tantamount to a declaration of war against England, and the foreign office is asked what action it intends to take to uphold British honor and maintain British integrity.

Depopulating Ireland.

LONDON, June 16.—Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Goschen are preparing a wholesale land purchase bill, to be introduced at the end of the present session of parliament. The bill is the product of an Irish law justice's brain and is on several lines—migration, emigration, consolidation and land purchase—and the credit of the British taxpayer is to be pledged only as a matter of form. The population is to be transported from the congested districts to some of the reclaimable waste land of Ireland, or else sent to the colonies and their small holdings consolidated. The landlords are to be bought out on a generous scale of purchase. The Unionists base great calculations upon the virtues of this nostrum, and it is they who are mainly instrumental in eggging on the Irish landlords to carry out evictions.

The Pope and Parnell.

LONDON, June 16.—The Time, Rome, correspondent, in a dispatch to that paper, says that the pope is not in sympathy with the Parnellite campaign, but the official opinion of the church in regard to the matter is not given as yet, because of the energetic pressure of a majority of the Irish bishops to hold the normal conservative tendencies of the Vatican in check. The correspondent further states that nothing definite can be learned with regard to the reports of a reconciliation between England and the Vatican and the proposed establishment of diplomatic relations.

Trying to Rob Columbus.

LONDON, June 16.—Documents are displayed in the Norse department of the American exhibition with the object of showing that the continent of America was discovered in 985 by an Icelander named Lief Erikson. A collection of maps lent by the Royal Geographical Society show the route said to have been taken and the parts of America explored and named by the Icelanders.

The Queen's Dublin Representative.

LONDON, June 16.—Prince Albert Victor, eldest son of the Prince of Wales who has been selected to represent the Queen at Dublin on the occasion of her jubilee festival, will go to Ireland on the 27th of June. It is stated that the order of St. Patrick will be conferred on him at the Thanksgiving services held in St. Patrick's cathedral, Dublin, on the 28th.

Signed By the Queen.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 16.—Sir Henry Drummond Wolff, British high commissioner in connection with Egyptian affairs, has notified the porte that Queen Victoria has appended her signature to the Anglo-Turkish convention concerning Egypt and that her majesty awaits the issue of the sultan's order announcing the convention in force.

Bloody Work of Moonlighters.

DUBLIN, June 16.—A farm servant named Hurley was shot and killed last night by moonlighters near Tralee, County Kerry. Eleven bullets pierced his body. Hurley had been in the employ of a widow named Burke, whose husband was recently found dead under a hay mow on the farm under circumstances which aroused suspicion.

The London Commons.

LONDON, June 16.—The house of commons last night resumed debate on the coercion bill, taking up the fifth clause, which deals with the proclaiming of a district. Several amendments were adopted and a few rejected, none being of vital importance.

A Gain for Russia.

BELGRADE, June 15.—M. Ristic, the new Premier of Servia, is a man of strong pro-Russian sympathies. His elevation is considered a check to Austria and a gain for Russia in the Balkans.

The Weather.
WASHINGTON, June 16.—Indications—Northeasterly winds, nearly stationary temperature, fair weather.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Quotations of the Money, Stock, Produce and Cattle Market for June 14.

New York—Money 5@6 per cent. Exchange steady. Government firm.

Currency sixes, 125@126; four coupous 129@130; four-and-a-half, 109@110.

The stock market opened 14@14 per cent lower this morning, but after the first few transactions became firmer on some support by the bull cliques and buying to cover. By 11 o'clock the early decline had been fully recovered, but about that hour combined raids on New York & New England, Wheeling & Lake Erie, West Point, Pacific Mail and New York Central caused prices to break sharply. At midday prices were down 14 to 34@4 per cent. Since 12 o'clock there has been a slight recovery.
